HIGH SCHOOL
IS LIKE A GAME OF CHESS
FOUR YEARS OF MOVING
OVER RANKS AND FILES
MATCHING THE CONSTANT CHALLENGE
OF CHECK AND CHECKMATE
NOW MOVING QUICKLY, NOW SLOWLY
WE DO OUR BEST
TO USE OUR POWERS WISELY
TO WELD MIND AND HEART AND SKILL
INTO ONE TEAM
BECOMING — EVER BECOMING MORE PERFECT KNIGHTS
MORE PERFECT LADIES
BUT IN THIS GAME
THEY ONLY LOSE WHO DO NOT PLAY
AND THE KING WE SERVE
IS NOT ON THE BOARD AT ALL

DEDICATION

The students of Bishop Luers High School take this opportunity to salute Monsignor William J. Lester. As Superintendent of Schools in the Diocese of Ft. Wayne--South Bend, Msgr. Lester served as diocesan coordinator through the planning and construction of Bishop Luers High School. We owe it largely to his good judgment that we have such a functional building and such excellent facilities. Thanks, then, Monsignor, for a beautiful school. We will try always to use it well. In our book, you will always be a Knight's Knight.

THE MOST REVEREND LEO A. PURSLEY, D. D.
BISHOP OF FORT WAYNE-SOUTH BEND

Four Years

If We Had A Birthday Cake

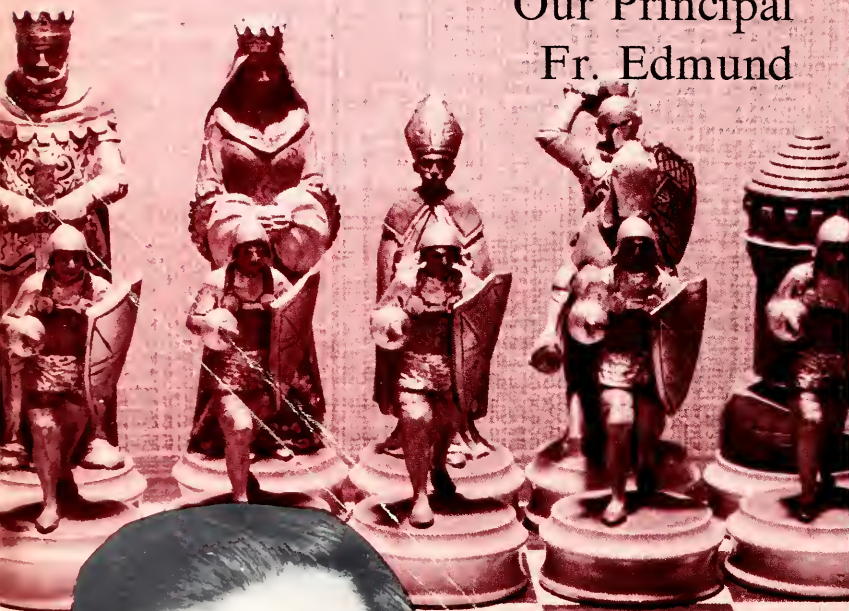

... it would have four candles on it--or maybe only one. This year, for the first time, we have four classes in our school. It's a long way from those first days four years ago when 136 freshmen walked across the mud on narrow wooden planks to a not quite finished building to begin high school as well as the traditions of Bishop Luers. But that was a long teen-age time ago. Here are members of our present classes, and like the cheerleaders at the right, they are up in the air over Luers.

The man in front of the chess team is Father Edmund Moore. He is the one who plans the moves and who coordinates students, teachers, curriculum, community, and resources into the team which is Bishop Luers High School. It is a complicated and taxing game he plays, full of infinite possibilities and unexpected traps. But he plays it well. And anyone who has watched him for the last four years can only say, "Here is a master chessman."

SENIORS

It doesn't seem like four years. Now they are gone forever. But we would like to think that we have left our mark on Bishop Luers as it has left its mark on us. As we look back in years to come, we will always say, "We led the way." It was tough at times, this pioneering, but it was worth every minute of it. And as we turn to a new chapter in our lives, we do so with the confidence that a great effort has gone into preparing us. We do so with the hope that perhaps, someday, we may truly lead in that bigger life for which education is merely a preparation.

MOST LOYAL: Barbara Vander Meer and Terry Mills. (Oh little brother in brother's sweater.)

Yawn. Another day.
 Will I get there on time?
 What will the gang have to say?
 Am I prepared?
 Wish I had studied some more.
 (Glad I went to the game though.
 That was a score!)

Waiting for class to begin . . .
 Is there a quiz?
 (Wish I was him over there;
 Gee what a whiz!)

Periods fly by like a flash,
 One, two, three, four,
 Finally comes lunch and a chance
 To catch up on the score.

On through the long afternoon
 Brains clank and jangle,
 Language and history and math,
 Man! what a tangle!
 Golly will this never end?
 Ah! there goes the bell!
 See you tomorrow then friend --
 We're off with a yell.

And so it goes day after day,
 Year after year,
 But somehow in spite of it all,
 We like it here.

We may drop in at the store, but after that, it's one class after another,

SCHOOL DAY

Somehow, we get there in the morning,

It seems like a long time till lunch and then more class

..... make a locker stop and go to our home rooms.

..... and another and ANOTHER.

..... and more class. All this to prepare THE LEADERS OF TOMORROW.'

"COURTESY IS A PRACTICE OF CHRISTIAN CHARITY; STUDENTS ARE TO BE COURTEOUS AT ALL TIMES." --as illustrated by Lynn Datzman and Fred Tone.

EVERY SCHOOL HAS STANDARDS . . . of conduct and we have ours. They are set down in that ignoble document, the school rules. Actually, the rules are quite well observed at Bishop Luers. Just ask the dean! The pictures here will illustrate some of the situations the rules are designed to avoid. The captions will be familiar to anyone who has spent a day in "jug". (The editors wish to thank the models for these pictures who, of course, would not be caught dead really doing these things.)

CLUBS, ACTIVITIES COMBINE

Barbara Wilhelm is shown lighting the Advent wreath. The whole school participates in this ceremony through the Advent Season.

Father Lucius puts the boys' speech club through their paces. Here they are shown listening to Earl Hamm.

Father Conan directs a good old fashioned community-sing. The words are projected on a screen in the middle of the gym.

Officers of the National Honor Society at work on the Christmas Bureau project for needy families: S. Worman, T. Blaising, L. Datzman, and D. Brodrick.

We collected a mountain of things. Getting some of them ready to go are, in the foreground: Sandy Worman, Ellen Reed, and Sara Pequinot.

SERVICE WITH GROWTH AND ENRICHMENT

Band officers and director: Robert Lauer, Susan Hoevel, Ken Wendeln, Mr. Walter Carr, Mike Robbins and Mary Ann Wedler.

Fr. Edmund officiates at blessing of class rings. Representing the Junior Class are the class officers, foreground: T. Blaising, R. Fritz, and C. Coen.

Sr. Clarilda directs the glee club.

Freshman twirlers practice a formation in the gymnasium. They were directed by Janice Fairfield.

Junior varsity cheerleaders: Kathleen Sorg, Mary Vordermark, Sally Jo Bradley, and Paulette Hankee.

Jenny looks pensive as Michael discovers he really likes her, here played by Sandy Worman and Dennis Fletter. (Play pictures by Father Clyde.)

DRAMA CLUB'S "JENNY KISSED ME" A

This is Priest's housekeeper, Mrs. Deazy, who engineers her orphaned niece into the rectory as a temporary boarder, played by Fran Arnold.

Owen Parkside, 21, is a college boy of some charm and utter brashness. He has a mild interest in Jenny. Played by Fred Tone.

Before Jenny came, Father Moynihan and Michael used to enjoy a quiet game of chess. Mrs. Deazy, of course doesn't miss a move.

This is Jenny, an unspoiled and self-reliant country girl who comes to live with her aunt at the rectory. Played by Sandy Worman.

This is simple, straightforward Father Moynihan. When he decides to get rid of Jenny by marrying her off, anything can happen. Played by Rick Baltes.

Michael, 34, is a young teacher who has not yet found himself. When he falls in love with Jenny, even he is surprised. Played by Dennis Fletter.

BRILLIANT SUCCESS

Right, rectory scourge, Miss Stearns (Elaine Egts), brings pineapple rice to Miss Deazy and Father Moynihan.

This is the cast which performed so ably under the direction of Father Florentine. STANDING: Margaret Still, Lynn Datzman, Mary Anne Kaminski, Fran Arnold, Rae Ann Horstman, Sally Freeman, Elaine Egts, Barbara Prough, Linda Weaver, Richard Baltes. SEATED: Dennis Fletter, Sandy Worman, and Fred Tone.

Romance blossoms in an unlikely place,--the rectory parlor. This is too much, says Father Moynihan, his clerical sensibilities quite offended. S. Worman, D. Fletter, R. Baltes.

Mike Burns arrives after CC game. Welcome the hero!

AT THE HOP, HOPE!

After the game hops are a regular feature of life at Luers. These pictures were taken after the Luers--CC game but they might have been taken on a dozen other occasions. Same people, same rhythms, same problems. Girls dance, boys talk. You know the code. If the music settles down to a slower beat to which a boy might shuffle, then the code forbids girls to dance together. So everybody talks. Oh well, in the meantime fluff your hair and look pretty girls. HE may be watching you. You know our motto: "At the hop, hope!"

FIRST PROM

First prom
A Midsummer Night's Dream
Shades of pink and rose
The Orchard Ridge was gay
With flowered vines
Inside it was Central Park
While music drifted on the patio
Couples waltzed the night away
And then the queen
Tears, and the royal salute
And as the orchestra
Played a regal dance
Came midnight
And Cinderella had to go
Monday
We would be "us" again
But this was our night
A perfect prom
In perfect form
To make a first
That we would long remember.

Bright, broke, cute and coy: Barb Schmoll, Dan Brodrick, Kathy Todd, and Pat Gerardot.

Guest, Kay Steinacker, M. B. Lauer, J. Hill, J. Lebrato,
J. Fairfield, C. Lancaster, Guests.

What a day it has been, what a rare mood I'm in: Cheryl Greeley, Mike
Braun, Dave Dickmeyer, Don Anweiler, Mary Ann Kaminski, and Andy Giese.

Mary Kay Nill, Bequi De Wald, Steve McArdle, Gene Hille and Judy Swanson. So young and fair and debonair . . .

Oh, won't you dance with me,
Come on and dance with me:
Charyl Lancaster and date.

Meanwhile back at the ranch: Ted Egts, Gene Hille and Guest. Gee, Ma, it was only punch.

Steve Ottenweller, Sheila Gerardot, Susie Steckbeck, Don Ellis, Connie Kaminski, Gene Trabel, Mary Kay Schenkel and Vern Sliger. A party fit for a queen.

Cutest couple at the ball: Coach and Mrs. Gaughan.

SCHOLASTIC AWARDS BANQUET 1961

Bishop Leo A. Pursley speaks to honor-students and their guests at Bishop Luers' first annual Scholastic Awards Banquet.

At the speaker's table are, from the left, Father Hoevel, Father Gollner, Father Edmund, Msgr. Lester, Bishop Pursley, Msgr. Feltes, Mrs. Richard Nill, Mr. Nill.

Father Conan gives Dan Brodrick his scholastic "L" and certificate of merit.

The first annual Scholastic Awards Banquet was held on Thursday, May 25. Scholastic awards were formerly given at a general awards banquet, but with the increased enrollment, the scholars divorced themselves from the athletes and had their own affair. Students who maintained honor roll status for four semesters in succession were awarded letters for their achievement.

His Excellency the Most Rev. Bishop Pursley spoke for the occasion. He laid great emphasis on the primacy of the mind in Catholic education and gave his enthusiastic approval to the recognition of scholastic merit.

Msgr. Lester, the Diocesan Superintendent of Schools, area Pastors, the faculty, and parents were guests for the occasion. Msgr. Lester gave the invocation and Father Edmund presented the awards.

The banquet was sponsored by the Mothers' Club.

AWARDS SEASON

S. Hamm, R. Burgette, W. Sullivan, L. Krouse, J. Rauch, and M. Reed.

On May 9, at 8:15 p.m., members of the freshman, reserve, and varsity teams assembled in the school cafeteria to receive their annual tribute.

Numerals were given to the freshman players, letters to the reserves, and jackets to the varsity.

Mr. "Corky" Devlin, a former member of the Fort Wayne Pistons, was the main speaker. In his own words, he "was run out of town once, but came back for another crack at it." He emphasized the playing field virtues and delighted everyone with his humor.

Mr. Fred Jamroz, the Knights' new assistant coach, was introduced. An alumnus of Notre Dame who assists Mr. Gaughan in all sports, Mr. Jamroz also holds a Master's degree from that University.

During the presentation of awards, Coach Gaughan handled the mike and handed delightful insults to a lucky few. Father Edmund presented the awards to the team members.

Dan Brodrick, a fullback in football and the center on the basketball team, was voted the Knights' most valuable player in both sports.

The awards banquet was sponsored by the Luers Activities Club.

Tom Alt gets his basketball letter from Fr. Edmund.

SOUTH BEND--ST. JOSEPH
Lebrato's surrounded.

PORTLAND. John Tholen completes on the move.

He's on his way.

Fred Tone digs out; Bush is buried.

The '61 football campaign included six straight wins, one loss, and one tie. Luers dropped their first City Series game 13-2: SOUTH SIDE dominated. SOUTH BEND-ST. JOSEPH held the Knights to a scoreless tie. Both teams showed a fabulous display of defensive power.

PORTLAND. The Red and Black finally broke through with a win of 26-0 over Portland. Mike Burns scored the first time when he ripped through from the six yard line. Dan Brodrick made the extra point. During the third quarter, Joe Lebrato staged a 72 yard drive. Still later in the quarter, John Bush thrilled the crowd with a 62 yard run. The final score came in the last period when Joe Lebrato completed a pass to Jim Snyder.

ELMHURST. In the first quarter of the Elmhurst game Mike Burns carried the ball around the right end for 6 points and received a Lebrato pass for the second score. Burns was there for the third, also, with a ten yard plunge. Luers showed its blocking power as it helped Lebrato to an 80 yard scamper. Jack Rauch scored on a 50 yard run to end the game.

CULVER. The Bishop Luers Knights put on an awesome display of power in the Culver game. Brodrick, Lebrato, and Burns were the big guns for this game. The final tally showed Luers 46-13, and Culver a big disappointment.

Lebrato's still going, going . . .

CENTRAL CATHOLIC. Little brothers can be tough proved true when Luers trampled the Irish with a 19-9 victory. Late in the first quarter C. C. drew first blood scoring a plunge by Bill Krouse which capped a 42 yard run. Furious with the thought of possible defeat the Knights began a long march down the field to lead at the end of the first half, 13-7. Then during the fourth quarter, Mike Burns with the help of some fine blocking scampered 42 yards for the final touchdown.

ROYERTON. Luers ran their win up to a string of 5, defeating Royerton 49-0. The Knights' 49 points set a school record. City scoring leaders Mike Burns and Joe Lebrato were the big men for the Knights.

CENTRAL. To finish the season, the Knights posted a 26-12 victory over the Central Tigers. Joe Lebrato, following fine blocking, led the Knights to their victory.

For their superb competition in City Series play, the Knights received the title "City Champions." On the afternoon of November 6, the Tri-State Railroad Committee presented a Victory Bell to Bishop Luers at a student assembly. Following speeches by Emil Sitko and Coach John Gaughan, Dan Brodrick rang the bell for the first time. As its first peal sounded through the gym, a wild ovation went up. Cheers, whistling, shouts, and applause left no doubt as to the mood of the joyous celebration. This indeed was a highly successful year.
